

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

RULES AND REGULATIONS

For the Government of
The Territorial Library of Arizona

RULE I.

The Law Library shall be kept open every day, except Sundays and legal holidays, from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 1:30 to 4 P. M., and the general library from 10 A. M. to 12 M. and from 2 to 4 P. M.

RULE II.

The Territorial Library is one of reference, and not a circulating library.

RULE III.

The Library shall be under the care and supervision of the Librarian, under such rules, regulations and orders, as may be prescribed by the Board of Curators.

RULE IV.

Members and officers of the Legislature, Territorial officers and clerks in the several departments, Judges of the Courts and members of the bar, who apply to the Librarian for books for their own special use, shall, upon compliance with the Rules and Regulations for the control of the Library, be permitted to take from the Library any book or publication belonging thereto in the Law Department.

RULE V.

When a book is taken from the Law Department of the Library, its name and title must be registered by the Librarian in a book to be kept for that purpose, together with the name and address of the applicant and the date at which it is taken, and a receipt for the same must be signed by the applicant and delivered to the Librarian.

144935

RULE VI.

Any person taking any book from the Library shall be liable for all damages done thereto while in his or her possession, which damages shall be assessed by the Librarian and paid to him by the person taking such book. Such moneys shall be applied to the purposes of the Library.

RULE VII.

Books must be handled with care. Leaves must not be turned down, and no marks with ink, pencil or otherwise shall be made on the margins.

RULE VIII.

No person, except the Judges of the Supreme and District Courts, shall be allowed to keep a book out of the Library for more than one week. All persons to whom this rule applies having books in their possession for the period mentioned shall be notified by the Librarian that the return of such books is required.

RULE IX.

If any person who has in his or her possession any book belonging to the Library shall neglect to return the same for more than five days after notice that such return is required, such person shall be liable to pay the Territory a sum equal to the value of such book, which value shall be estimated at the cost of replacing it. And until such sum be paid the Librarian may refuse to permit such person to remove any book from the Library.

RULE X.

Any person violating the rules of the Library may be prohibited by the Librarian from the use and privileges of the Library.
